AGAWAM SENIOR MUSICALLY HONORED

The only New England High School musician accepted as a member of the 1968 United States of America High School Band is an Agawam High School senior, John Keith Lowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lowell of Gunn-Geary Lane. John leaves on June 21st, flying to Memphis, Tenn. where he will have four days of intensive rehearsals with other selected members of the Band. This will be followed by a month of Concerts and sightseeing in San Antonio (Hemisphere), Dallas, and El Paso, Texas; Monterey and Juarez, Mexico; Phoenix; Los Angeles; Disneyland; Salt Lake City; Las Vegas; and Denver, Colorado.

Sponsored by the First Chair of America, a national musical honorary society, this group of 80 superior musicians from all parts of America is assembled each year for a musical tour, and has invited local civic clubs to honor and recognize some talented musician in their town. Since the tour this year includes playing a concert for the International Lions Convention in Dallas, Texas, our Agawam Lions Club has already presented John a musical scholarship of $200.00 towards trip expenses.

Active musically during school years, John is 1st chair member of the High School Concert and marching band; dance band; Woodwind ensemble, and show orchestra. He has been Solo Clarinet of Westfield State College Concert Band, and has contributed to the Agawam Elementary Concert Band and Woodwind Quartet, serving both as Teacher and Assistant Conductor. He has been accepted at Lowell State College where he will major in Music Education, studying clarinet with Mr. William Wrzensien of the New England Conservatory.

BAND TO HOLD PICNIC- WHOLE TOWN INVITED

The Agawam High Band will give a free outdoor concert on the hillside below the high school on the afternoon of May 30, following the Memorial Day Parade. Families are invited to bring a picnic lunch prior to the concert which will see the 8th grade band members joining the high school musicians for a portion of the program. Any former members of the band are also invited to sit in for this concert which will start at 1 o'clock, weather permitting. In the event of poor weather the program may be held indoors. Plans for this will be announced before that time.

Since regular seating will not be available, it is suggested that those attending bring folding chairs or blankets. This marks an innovation in local high school band programs in an outdoor concert and all are invited to a concert of light music following the parade.

At last count, 615,000 non-whites in the U.S. were unemployed but hundreds of thousands more were "hidden" unemployed because against their wishes, they were working only part-time.

In our 20 largest cities, one-third of Negro teenagers are unemployed, three times the proportion among white youngsters.

AGAWAM POSTMAN, HERO OF THE WEEK

Edward Cabral, Agawam Center postman was perhaps the busiest man in Agawam this past week when he rallied help for a woman who had fallen from a ladder and was lying on the ground in much pain. Cabral said today, "I was doing my route on Oak Hill Ave. in North Agawam when I heard this scream for help from a distance". "I went in the back yard at 72 Oak Hill Ave. and saw a woman lying on the ground. "I immediately hopped the fence to Spencer St. to assist her." "When I got there there were two other women and I told them to call the police ambulance immediately which they did." "I told them not to move her because I thought she must have broken her leg, so we made her as comfortable as possible until the ambulance came. The ambulance came within ten minutes with officers, Conkey and Bertera who put a splint on her leg before assisting her on a stretcher. Mrs. Benjamin Bassani of Spencer St. rode in the ambulance with her to Springfield Hospital."

Mrs. Catherine Brunell of 66 Spencer St. has much to be thankful for today with such wonderful neighbors and helpful letter carrier. Her condition is listed as good at the hospital.

INTERCHURCH LEAGUE EXTENDED TO 8

The Agawam Interchurch Baseball League has expanded the number of teams in the league this year from six to eight. Facing a situation that many other growing leagues experienced, the governing board of the league saw fit to divide the eight teams into two divisions. By no coincidence the divisions were named the American and National Leagues.

Opening day is not far away. At Shea's field May 26, following a brief ceremony, the St. Anthony Crusaders will host the St. John's Leprechauns. Plan to attend this game to open the season in a most appropriate fashion by cheering your favorite team or player to victory.

Other scheduled games for the week are: May 27, at Shea's field, Sacred Heart Shamrocks host St. John's Thunderbirds. At St. John's field St. John's Angels will host St. Theresa's Knights. May 28, at Phelps's field the Sacred Heart Saints host one of this year's expansion teams St. John's Legionnaires.

First Named Team Is Home Team

Tri Parish bowling league completed its 24th year of bowling with a banquet at Storowten Tavern Saturday. Miss Jean Lango composed the following poem;

"Well here we are—24—my, oh my,

Another year has just slipped by—

A new "Champ Team" has set the pace

And each is wearing a bright shiny face,

High scores, close matches and all of that

Has made each Monday a fine bowling match—

New bowlers—Old Bowlers—and In-Betweens

Have all felt fulfillment of bowling dreams.

So—Congratulations to one and all

We'll be looking for you in the fall—

With hopeful dreams and spirits high

For reaching perfection when we're 25.

Top bowlers in the league were Frank Morassi who posted an average of 108.76 and Ed Bouley who hit a 108.68 average—only 8 pins separated them. In the women's division, Mary Grabowski took top honors with 90.80 while Mary Beth Coughlin came in second with 90.63. Jean Lango took high triple for the year with 316 while B. Cassese and M. Guistina had a tie for high single with 124.

St. Michael's combine won the league championship trophy. Winning honors for top bowler in each division in addition to the ones already mentioned are the following: Men's Division, Class A, Bill Colson 104.60 Class B, V. Pescetta 99.41; Class C, J. Bilesimo 95.70. In the women's division, Class A, Jean Lango 88.65; Class B, L. Swewchuck 86.70; Class C, S. Barbieri.

Thirteen bowlers had perfect attendance, Morassi, Gatti, Urbinati, Cascella, Vergnani, L. Gallerani, W. Tyeson, Bessetts, Rovelli, Dupre, Merchadante, Barbieri and Carulli.

EARLY BIRD CLASSES AT WNEC FOR SUMMER

Since getting up early in the morning isn't considered such a bad idea anymore, Western New England College will be offering early morning classes during summer sessions this year, beginning June 10.

According to Professor Richard Burns, Director of WNEC's summer sessions, introductory mathematics, statistics, and computer systems have been scheduled daily from 7:45-9:15. Over the past few years, Professor Burns has discovered that early time schedules have been tried in other parts of the country and it appears that getting up early in the morning isn't such an unpopular idea.

Professor Burns further stated, "WNEC is scheduling these early morning courses on a hunch that students in the Springfield area would like to fit in a class during the cool of the morning and keep summer evenings free for outdoor activities. A class at this time might also appeal to a person who works on the second shift and therefore is not able to attend classes in the evening."

However, continued Professor Burns, "for those students who do work during the day, WNEC has, as usual, a wide selection, 20 to be exact, of evening courses, including two in graduate program of business administration - managerial accounting and personnel management and industrial relations."

Additional information about any of these courses may be obtained from the registrar's office at the college or write to the Director of Summer Sessions. As a service to the working man or woman, registration may be accomplished through the mail.

Green Thumb Tips

It takes a special kind of corn to make good pop corn—corn with little hull so there will be no hard center after it is popped.

One of the newer varieties is a hybrid hullless corn called Minhybrid, developed by the Minnesota Experiment Station. Higher yield, and greater expansion when popped are other virtues.

Do you love blue morning glories but lack a fence to support the vines?

Plant Royal Ensign, a bush-type morning glory instead.

This grows only a foot high; needs no support.

It has the brightest, deepest blue you'll find in flowers, each bloom set off by a golden throat with a white halo around it.

You can't hold a man down without staying down with him.—Booker T. Washington.

A good many of the insects that attack vegetables can be controlled without the use of poison.

Rotenone dust, used weekly, covering the undersides of leaves as well as the tops, is an effective material.

Non-poisonous to warm-blooded animals, humans included, it will kill fish, so it must be kept well away from pools in which these cold-blooded creatures live.

Have you tried the garden netting that is made from plastic cord?

It isn't strong enough to hold heavy vines but lightweight ones like sweet peas or edible peas can easily be made to climb upwards on it.

Stretch it along a row between stakes at either end.

The soil that you put into window boxes should be rich.
Remember that it will have to nourish the plants all season.

Be sure to use several inches depth of coarse material at the bottom of the box, underneath the soil, so the soil does not become waterlogged — a sure way to kill the plants in it.

While the nation's overall unemployment rate is now down to 3.5 per cent (and 1.5 per cent for married men),
the jobless rate for non-whites is 6.7 per cent. This is more than double the rate for whites and is even now a level which whites would not tolerate for themselves.

"Don't try to pass!"

WHAT A MIX!

Springtime is mixing time for compost piles. Just like slicing a cake, one slice is cut down the side of the pile with the shovel, mixed, another is cut, mixed, until the entire pile is turned. Note simplicity of enclosure's construction, easily seen since one end wall has been removed.
